CODE for AMERICA

The National Science Foundation and Code for America's Northern Virginia Brigade are teaming up again to host our second annual National Day of Civic Hacking

NATIONAL DAY OF CIVIC HACKING

Saturday, May 31, 2014

8:00am - 9:00pm

The National Science Foundation
4201 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, VA 22230

(Breakfast & lunch will be provided!)

Join civically engaged residents and technology enthusiasts – from industry, non-profit, government and education sectors – as we create exciting new civic-based applications and improve existing ones.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Anyone who wants to discuss or create technology to improve local government

- Data Geeks
- Developers
- Project Managers
- Technophiles
- UXers
- Designers
- Communications Enthusiasts
- Public Policy Aficionados
- Technology Integrators

SPECIAL KIDS EVENT!

As part of the day's events, we'll be asking families to gather data for A NEW PLAYGROUND APP in the City of Alexandria. Parents and kids can use their smartphones and help "crowd source" data to provide useful information about Alexandria's playgrounds for a new app.
